FOREWORD

Our children and young people are faced daily with enormous temptation to get involved in sexual activities even before they know what it is.

Equipping them EARLY with age-appropriate, culturally relevant, scientifically accurate and spiritually edifying Sex Education (Wholesome Sex Education);

- helps to empower them to take responsibility for their own health,
- prevents them from being victims to Sexual predators and
- helps them escape the consequences of premature sexual activities such as sexually transmitted infections, including HIV/AIDS, teenage pregnancy, teenage parenthood, abortion and its complications, genital cancers, and death.

The Scripture instructed that parents should TRAIN their children in the way they SHOULD go and when the children grow up, the instructions will not depart from them. Proverbs 22:6

However, it has been noted, sadly, that most parents, teachers and advocates do not really know the ‘THE WAY THESE CHILDREN SHOULD GO’ let alone training them in the same.

Some others who know what to do miss the correct approach and timing.

We have two choices; to fold our arms and watch things run its degenerating course or get involved to change the tide.

Wholesome Sex Education for Children and Adolescents Training is our response to this very important and difficult to ignore issue.

A little CONSISTENT drop can make an ocean. It is better to do something that will positively impact than do nothing at all.

It is this passion that gave birth to the mandate to start involving and collaborating with parents, teachers and advocates by training them on how to teach Wholesome Sex Education.

We have taken it upon ourselves to provide the missing link and bridge the gap; to raise sexually informed children and Adolescents who will be able to take responsibility for their sexual health and identify a sexual predator, including paedophiles, and quickly expose them before they cause havoc.

We have taught the content of this manual to thousands of people in various places and virtually.

This content is also available on our e-learning portal where you will be able to get certified after completing the course.

All these you get for FREE. This is to allow everyone full access without any form of limitation.

Promoters of sexually immoral contents make it available for FREE, we feel we cannot do less. We rather need to come together to saturate the world space, including the internet, with sexually pure contents.

This is what we have brought to the table at CASRHA Foundation.

Our goal is that No Child or Young Person who Crosses our Path will Fall Victim to Sexual Immoralities.

If we can equip them to win the battle of sex, we would have helped them to win the battle of life.

We also accept invitations to teach in religious organizations, campuses, and in stakeholders' gatherings. You can reach out to us using this link, <https://wa.me/2348150989646>, or send me an email, dr.bjseyi@casrhafoundation.org

Module 1 is introductory as it unveils some scientific facts regarding the burden of sexually transmitted infections, adolescent pregnancy and abortion, etcetera.

Module 2 explores the content of comprehensive sex education (CSE) and brings to fore the advantage of Wholesome Sex Education over the CSE.

Module 3 is set to equip the learner with requisite elements needed to effectively and efficiently teach Wholesome Sex Education.

Module 4 deals with the right approach to age – and gender – appropriate sex education, including sex education for vulnerable children and adolescents.

Module 5 exposes the problems and challenges with puberty and teaches how you can help adolescents navigate this beautiful period of their lives without injuries; it also addresses the problem of pornography, masturbation and feelings of guilt.

Module 6 is the concluding session that summarises the content of the training with passionate appeal to the trained participants to get on the field with SMART goals despite any limitation.

Module 4: Approach to Teaching Age & Gender – appropriate Sex Education

At the end of this module, you should be able to teach age- and gender-appropriate sex education, including sex education for vulnerable children.

4.1. Teaching Ages 2 to 4 years Sex Education

- At this age, they are aware of their body parts, use the opportunity to teach them about their private and public parts
- Let them know what private and public means
- Mention to them the real names of the private and public parts
- Let them know what categories of persons that must NOT see or touch their private parts.
- A good time to teach this is when bathing them or preparing them for school.
- Point to the penis and the vagina, the buttocks and the breast, the laps, etc and tell them, ‘This is your penis, vagina, laps, buttocks, breast, no body must touch it,’
- Teach them to report to Mummy or Daddy if anyone touches or wants to touch their private part, regardless of the person’s intention.
- The person may not have a bad intention but what if the person does have an evil intention?

- When you teach them this way, you are equipping them to speak up and as a result equipping them against child abusers and molesters.
- Knowledge is power. The more you educate your child, the more empowered they become.
- Sexual abusers and molesters are usually afraid of an empowered child. The moment they notice your child will tell you everything, they will be careful around your child.
- They don't like to be known as evil doers.
- Teach your child to report anyone who tells them not to tell you anything to you.
- And when your child comes to tell you something, don't ever shut them up.
- Even if what they are saying is not reasonable, still validate it.
- A day may come when they would say something that will save them from trouble.
- But if you have previously shut them up, they may be afraid to tell you any more things and abusers may easily have their way.
- Childhood is the most innocent period in life.
- They learn better with songs and rhymes, you have the gift, compose for them.
- Be playful when teaching, they learn better in a playful atmosphere.

4.2. Ages 5 – 8 years

- At this stage, try to build on the previous years' information and try to make more explanation.
- At this stage, they are usually very inquisitive, listen to them and sincerely answer their questions.
- Any question you are not sure of the answer, sincerely tell them you don't have the answer but that you will find out and get back to them. NEVER TELL THEM A LIE!
- If they find out what you told them was not true, they may not come back to you for any more questions.
- They may fall into a wrong or deceptive hands and find themselves in trouble.
- If you have promised to find out, that's a promise. Try not to break your promises to them. They are very sensitive to unfaithfulness at these ages.
- At these ages, the boys can understand why they have to stand to pee while the girls can understand why they have to squat for the same thing.
- You can also teach them about appropriate body wears, neatness and personal hygiene.

4.3. Ages 8 – 12 years

- Puberty is starting, especially in girls. Teach them all they need to know about puberty, including the feelings of attraction for the opposite gender.
- Talk to them about sexual urges. It is a sign that they are biologically normal.
- Talk to boys about wet dreams and what it signifies.
- Talk to the boys about early morning erections and erections whenever they are in the company of girls.
- Talk to girls about menstruation and help her to demystify all the myths and wrong ideologies around it.
- This means that you must equip yourself with the right information. You will learn details about puberty in Module 5.
- Talk to them about the uniqueness of their body, their shape and stature.
- Be sincere with your discussions with them. You will lose their trust the day they find out you haven't been truthful to them.
- We recommend that the teachings about puberty should begin early enough before age 8 but at most by age 8.
- This will make them to trust you more when they start experiencing the things you already told them.

4.4. Teenagers

- Many of them at this stage will be struggling with the effects of the upsurge of their sexual hormone.
- They are more sensitive about how they look, what they hear, especially compliments from their friends of opposite gender, and they will prefer to spend time more with their peers or alone.
- If you are the aggressive type or someone who appears too serious, they will not like you.
- But when you are soft and friendly, they will be more comfortable with you.
- The easiest way to get them is to give a nice compliment about them often.
- Everyone loves to hear good things being said about them. If you are always complaining about them, they will avoid you.
- They often have secret; you will need to give them listening ears and do not express surprise when they open up their deep secrets.
- Teach them about sex, sexually transmitted infections, HIV/AIDS
- Talk about the effects of watching pornography on their emotional, psychological, mental and spiritual health.
- Be soft in your approach and make it a dialogue. Allow them to respond to you. Don't be the only one talking.
- If you are discussing this in a group, allow them to laugh about it. It will make them more open.

- Talk about the healthy use of mobile devices, including smartphones and TV.
- Let them know that the internet contains good and bad, and teach them how the fear of God can help them to take healthy decisions.
- Teach them about social media echo chambers and how they can use it as a tool for their personal growth and development.
- Raise the subject of masturbation with them.
- Don't wear a judgmental face. Remember that unless they open their hearts to you, you won't be able to help them.
- Research has shown that up to 90% of boys and up to 70% of girls will masturbate before the age of 19 years.
- Let them know it is not peculiar to them alone but more importantly, let them know that it is one of the reasons why they are not living the way God wants them to live.
- When they eventually open their hearts to you, lead them to ask God for a sexually pure heart like we have discussed in Module 2, and make them be accountable to you.
- Masturbation, like every other sin, thrives in the dark. Once it is exposed, it loses its power over them.
- More details about freedom from masturbation will be covered in Module 5.

4.5. Female Young Adults and Relationships

- They have more visible external sexual development (such as their breasts, hips and buttocks) that often make they extremely attractive to the male gender.
- Regardless of your daughter's age, the moment she has these things, boys and men will find her sexually attractive.
- Use this opportunity to let them know the parts of their body that when exposed can get boys or men excessively attracted to them.
- Teach them to know that the more they cover, the more value they preserve.
- Then, talk about their virginity and why it is extremely important to remain a virgin till marriage.
- If they have made mistake, don't judge them, lead them back to God and reassure them of God's love.
- Tell them about their hymen, that it can be broken by any penetrating object including fingers (their own fingers or someone else') and a male's penis.
- Teach them about sexual urges that it is normal to have feelings for sex but that with their pure heart, they have grace to put the urge or feeling under control.
- Use the opportunity to teach them not to increase their sexual pressure by staying too intimate with the opposite gender, being in a romantic relationship with a boy, reading romantic novels and magazines, watching romantic movies or pornography, etcetera.

- Reassure them that they do not need to be in a hurry to start a relationship, they should allow themselves to grow and properly mature enough to take such decision.

4.6. Male Young Adults and Relationships

- They have started having a physique that makes them attractive to the female gender.
- Ladies at this stage naturally want to hang around them.
- Don't try to prevent them from enjoying the company of the opposite sex, rather introduce sexual purity to them.
- Be a friend to them and the girls that come around them.
- See every new friend that you see around them as a potential mentee
- The more influence you have on the girls around your boys, the more the boys will listen to your instruction.
- Boys are often pushed to act like a man, by going to woo a girl or even involve in sexual immoralities.
- Teach them that the best way to be men is to remain virgin till marriage by embracing abstinence.
- Teach them that being a man means protecting the girls from being sexually abused or used.
- Teach them about sexual urges that it is normal to have feelings for sex but that with their pure heart, they have grace to put the urge under control.

- Let them know that everyone has sexual urges, including yourself and teach them about overseeing their sexual urge.
- Use the opportunity to teach them not to increase their sexual pressure by staying too intimate with the opposite gender, being in a romantic relationship with a girl, watching romantic movies or pornography, etcetera.

4.7. Dealing with Peer Influence and Peer Pressure

- Let them know it's OK to want to hang out with friends but that if the friends are bad, it is better for them to be alone.
- Remind them of Proverbs 13: 20, “Wise friends make you wise, but you hurt yourself by going around with fools.” (CEV)
- Tell them that if their friends are those who are always talking about having a boyfriend or girlfriend, or those who talk about getting involved in sexual activities, etcetera, they will soon start acting or talking like them.
- Let them know that their friends should be those who fear God. Those who have also received a pure heart from God.
- Finally, train them to be sexual purity crusaders, reproduce yourself in them and thus, expand your influence through them.
- Until your child begins to propagate your legacy, you must continue to teach them.
- Paul told Timothy in 2Timothy 2:2, “Pass on what you heard from me...to reliable leaders who are competent to teach others”. (MSG)
- This is what we are doing through this training, go ahead and do likewise, PASS IT ON!

4.8. Sex Education for Vulnerable ones

- To help these sets of children and teenagers, you must have empathy – you must put yourself in their shoes so that you can know how and which area to help them.
- Those who were raped or molested need you to be kind and understanding.
- They want you to reassure them that they can still be great in life despite what had happened to them.
- Give them hope about the future and let them know that they can still enjoy a sexually pure life like every other person.
- Ensure you do not give them a false hope; for example, telling them that their hymen can grow again is a false hope. The hymen, once broken cannot be restored.
- If they already got sexually transmitted infections, help them to see a doctor for standard treatment.
- Express genuine concern about any loss they might have experienced and reassure them of God's love.
- If a rape, abuse or molestation experience is recent (less than 72 hours), please help them to the hospital so they can get first aid, and to take HIV preventive medications.
- The healthcare provider may offer them emergency contraceptive pills to prevent pregnancy if the sexual molestation or rape is not more than 72 hours. This prevents pregnancy from taking place and does not abort a pregnancy once it has taken place.
- Be there to give a listening ear and answer all their questions.

- Children on the street are those who go to hawk or do business on the street but who go back home to sleep while Children of the street are those whose whole livelihood is on the street; they live with their household on the street.
- These set of children are more at risk of sexual abuse, molestation and bad influence. They need help.
- When you meet them, have mercy on them. Be compassionate enough to teach them sexual purity with love and empathy.
- If you have the means to improve their living condition to take them off the street, don't hesitate. God will greatly bless you.
- Other vulnerable children include orphans (Both single and double orphans) and those who live with persons who are not their parents, including house helps.
- These ones need very special attention. Some of them are usually being threatened not to speak out to any one even when being molested.
- You must convince them that you are reliable and trustworthy before they will open their heart to you.
- The only way to get them to confide in you is by showing them genuine love and concern.
- Please, when they eventually burst the bag of worms, before you scream, ask for God's wisdom and seek counsels on how to handle issues.
- You can be assured of our availability to offer counsels and give guidance.
